GRADUATE RECRUITMENT OPPORTUNITIES (GRO) ASSISTANTSHIP:

The Graduate School's Office of Recruitment and Retention has developed a program called the Graduate Recruitment Opportunity (GRO) Assistantship. This Program is designed to be inclusive such that any entering graduate student who is considered a first generation college graduate, educationally or economically disadvantaged, or has some aspects of a uniquely diverse background to add to their discipline of study may be nominated from graduate programs at The University of Georgia. If your application is approved, do you wish to be considered for this Assistantship?

_____ No

_____ Yes, see next paragraph

To be considered for this assistantship you must be a US citizen or permanent resident. Additionally, you must submit a 1 to 2 page typed essay explaining (1) how you qualify for the assistantship, (2) how you can contribute to the field of child and family development, and (3) how the assistantship will help you. You may submit this as supplementary information sent to the department. The document should be titled: Graduate Recruitment Opportunities (GRO) Assistantship Application

All Assistantship applicants must agree to the following statement:

If I accept a Graduate School Assistantship at The University of Georgia, I agree to abide by all policies and regulations which apply to the assistantship.
