

The State of Georgia Families

2009

Listed below are some brief facts about family life, health, economics, children, and housing in Georgia.

Family Life

Healthy families make healthy communities.

- 148,403 babies were born in 2006.
- 14,209 low-birth weight babies were born in 2006.
- 49.8% of households in 2000 included children under age 18.
- 9.88% of the population was 65 years of age and older in 2007.

Nutrition and Health

Healthy eating and exercise help to reduce the risk of chronic disease.

- 16,258 deaths were due to heart disease in 2006.
- 14,322 deaths were due to cancer in 2006.
- 61.7% of adult Georgians are obese or overweight.
- 12% of children 18 & under have no health insurance (2005).

Children and Parents

Children need involved adults who care about them.

- 26.5% of the population was under 18 years of age in 2007.
- 43,766 cases of child abuse were investigated in 2007.
- In 2005, all parents worked outside the home in 61% of families with children under age 6.

- In 2000, 47.6% of grandparents living in the same household with a grandchild were responsible for the child's care.
- 36% of children under 18 lived in families headed by a single parent (2004).

Adolescents

Adolescents need opportunities to develop leadership and autonomy.

- 72.3% of teens graduated on time from public high schools in 2007.
- 14,544 births were to unwed teens in 2006.
- 33% of households with children ages 6-17 did not have Internet access at home in 2003.

Family Economics

Managing financial resources increases family stability.

- Median household income was $45,564 in 2005.
- Georgia's bankruptcy rate is one of the highest in the U.S. There were 51,070 bankruptcy filings in Georgia in 2007.

Housing

Affordable homeownership and maintenance can prevent household hazards and neighborhood blight.

- The 2008 housing wage in Georgia was $13.98 per hour. Housing wage is the amount a full-time worker must earn to afford a 2-bedroom house.

The State of Columbia County Families

Family Life

- 1,537 babies were born in 2006.
- 127 were low-birth weight babies.
- 54.5% of households included children under age 18 in 2000.
- 9.02% of the population was 65 years of age and older in 2007.

Nutrition and Health

- 129 deaths were due to heart disease in 2006.
- 170 deaths were due to cancer.

Children and Parents

- 27.43% of the population was under 18 years of age in 2007.
- 340 cases of child abuse were investigated in 2007.
- In 2000, all parents worked outside the home in 57% of families with children under age 6.
- In 2000, 53.2% of grandparents living in the same household with a grandchild were responsible for the child's care.

Adolescents

- 81.4% of teens graduated on time from high school in 2007.
- 100 births were to unwed teens in 2006.

Family Economics

- Median household income was $64,514 in 2005.
- There were 430 bankruptcy filings in 2007.

Housing

- The 2008 housing wage was $12.58 per hour.